

Bryan E. Sharratt

Bryan Sharratt is a member of The Spectrum Group, a consulting firm based in Alexandria, Virginia, specializing in Defense and National Security, Congressional and Governmental Relations, and U.S. and International Business.

Prior to joining The Spectrum Group, Mr. Sharratt first served by presidential appointment as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Air Force (Reserve Affairs), overseeing the Air National Guard, the Air Force Reserve, and all of the Air Force's counterdrug activities, as well as serving on the Reserve Forces Policy Board. He also represented the Air Force Secretariat with other federal agencies, members of Congress, state and local officials, and representatives of other nations.

Mr. Sharratt was subsequently appointed as the Executive Director of the National Committee for Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve, managing the relationship of all 1.3 million reserve component members and their civilian employers.

As an attorney and CPA, Mr. Sharratt has managed a broad range of public and private endeavors, involving law, accounting, business, educational, and governmental entities. He is accomplished in strategic planning; profit-making, governmental support, and private fundraising; and public, media, and legislative relations.

Mr. Sharratt's military service includes four years in the U.S. Navy, first as a judge advocate in San Diego, then as legal officer and officer of the deck (underway) aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Forrestal. Upon his release from active duty, he transferred his commission to the Air Force Reserve, serving an additional 19 years as an individual mobilization augmentee with successive assignments with the 90th Combat Support Group, 15th Air Force, Headquarters Strategic Air Command and Headquarters U.S. Strategic Command. His military awards include the Air Force Meritorious Service Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters.

Mr. Sharratt holds a BA degree in economics and a JD degree, both from Duke University, as well as an MBA from the University of Wyoming, and is a graduate of the Air War College.